Lift Every Voice and Sing

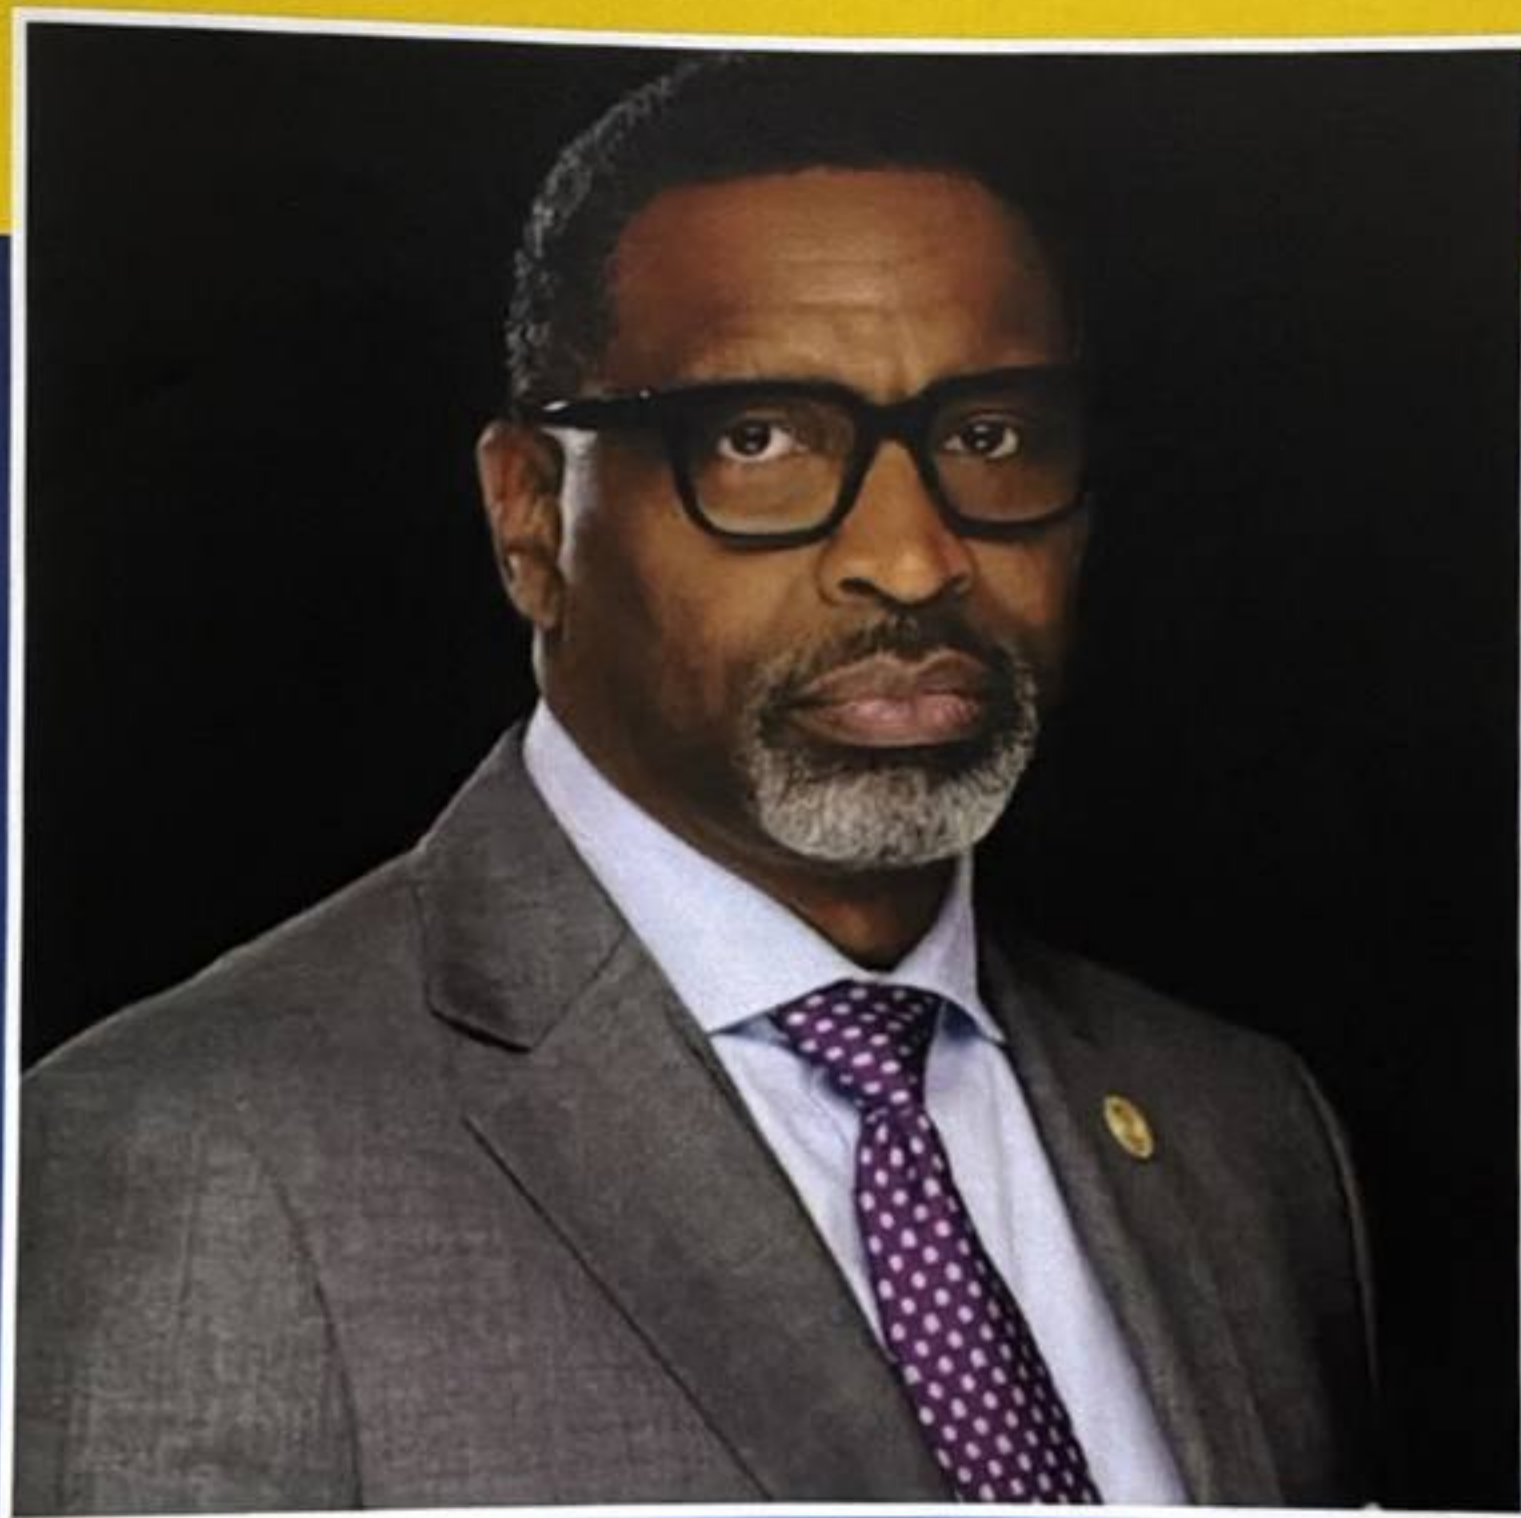

James Weldon Johnson

Lift every voice and sing,
Till earth and heaven ring,
Ring with the harmonies of Liberty;
Let our rejoicing rise
High as the list'ning skies,
Let it resound loud as the rolling sea.
Sing a song full of the faith that the dark past has taught us,
Sing a song full of the hope that the present has brought us;
Facing the rising sun of our new day begun,
Let us march on till victory is won.

Stony the road we trod,
Bitter the chast'ning rod,
Felt in the days when hope unborn had died;
Yet with a steady beat,
Have not our weary feet
Come to the place for which our fathers sighed?
We have come over a way that with tears has been watered.
We have come, treading our path through the blood of the slaughtered,
Out from the gloomy past,
Till now we stand at last
Where the white gleam of our bright star is cast.

God of our weary years,
God of our silent tears,
Thou who hast brought us thus far on the way;
Thou who hast by Thy might,
Led us into the light,
Keep us forever in the path, we pray.
Lest our feet stray from the places, our God, where we met Thee,
Lest our hearts, drunk with the wine of the world, we forget Thee;
Shadowed beneath Thy hand,
May we forever stand,
True to our God,
True to our native land.

A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

On behalf of the DeSoto County (MS) Branch of the NAACP, it is my distinct honor to welcome you to our 2026 Freedom Fund Banquet. This year's theme, "We the People", calls us back to three simple words that carry an extraordinary promise: that our democracy belongs to all of us and that every person deserves a voice, an opportunity, and a place in shaping our shared future.

Yet the promise of We the People requires more than words. It requires vigilance, courage, participation, and action.

Across Mississippi and throughout our nation, families are confronting challenges that reach into nearly every aspect of daily life. The rising costs of housing, food, fuel, and utilities are placing tremendous pressure on working families.

Questions surrounding redistricting and voting rights remind us that fair representation remains essential to a healthy democracy. Communities continue to confront racism, inequity, and concerns about integrity and accountability in government.

At the same time, new challenges are emerging. The rapid growth of artificial intelligence and large-scale data centers is creating important conversations about economic development, energy demand, water use, environmental impact, and who benefits when community resources are used to support unprecedented technological growth.

These issues may appear different, but they are connected by a fundamental question: Who gets to participate in the decisions that shape our communities?

Our answer must remain: We the People.

For more than a century, the NAACP has worked to ensure that those words extend to people who historically have been excluded from their full promise. Here in DeSoto County, we continue that work by advocating for voting rights, educational opportunity, economic equity, environmental justice, and equal protection under the law.

Tonight, we honor those who carried this work before us, celebrate those who labor beside us, and invest in those who will continue it after us.

Thank you to our members, sponsors, community partners, elected and appointed leaders, faith communities, Divine Nine organizations, civic organizations, businesses, and friends for joining us. Your presence represents more than support for a banquet. It represents a commitment to building a DeSoto County in which opportunity, justice, and democracy belong to everyone.

May we leave this celebration inspired not only by what has been accomplished, but also by what remains possible when We the People stand together, speak together, serve together, and act together.

Yours in the struggle for justice and equality,

Pastor Robert Tipton, Jr. - President
DeSoto County (MS) Branch NAACP

A MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIR

Greetings and Welcome!

It is my pleasure to welcome you to the DeSoto County (MS) Branch of the NAACP's 2026 Freedom Fund Banquet. On behalf of the Freedom Fund Banquet Committee, thank you for choosing to spend this evening with us as we celebrate our accomplishments, recognize our partners, and recommit ourselves to the ongoing pursuit of justice and equality.

Our theme, "We the People", is both a declaration and a challenge.

It reminds us that democracy is not something that happens around us - it is something in which each of us has a responsibility to participate. Our voices matter. Our votes matter. Our neighborhoods matter. Our families matter. And the decisions made in our city halls, county offices, state capitols, courtrooms, and halls of Congress have real consequences for the people we love and the communities we call home.

At a time when families are stretching their budgets to afford housing, groceries, fuel, and utilities; when voting rights and representation remain the subjects of consequential legal and civic debates; when racism and inequity continue to demand our attention; and when the expansion of technology and data centers raises new questions about energy, water, the environment, and community resources, our collective voice is as important as ever.

But tonight is also about hope.

Every person in this room represents the possibility of change. Every membership, sponsorship, advertisement, ticket purchase, donation, volunteer hour, and partnership strengthens our ability to serve this community. Your support helps transform the ideals we celebrate tonight into meaningful work throughout the year.

I extend heartfelt appreciation to our Branch President, officers, Executive Committee, Freedom Fund Banquet Committee, sponsors, community partners, volunteers, and each person who helped make this evening possible. Most importantly, thank you for being here.

As we enjoy this evening of fellowship, reflection, and celebration, may we continue the work. Together, may we protect the progress. Together, may we pursue the promise of justice and equality for all.

With gratitude and in service.

ABOUT THE FREEDOM FUND BANQUET

The DeSoto County (MS) Branch of the NAACP, Unit 5574, has served the community for more than 29 years, working to advance civil and human rights and create a more equitable future for all residents. The Annual Freedom Fund Banquet brings together members, community partners, and supporters to celebrate progress, recognize service, and raise essential funds to sustain the Branch's advocacy and community programs.

In 2026, the mission of the NAACP remains as vital as ever. Communities continue to confront challenges involving voting rights and representation, access to affordable housing and quality health care, rising costs for basic necessities, educational equity, environmental concerns, and the continued pursuit of equal treatment under the law. The DeSoto County Branch remains committed to helping ensure that every person can exercise their civil and human rights without discrimination.

The Freedom Fund Banquet provides an opportunity for community members to gather, reflect, become informed, and leave inspired to continue the work of building a stronger DeSoto County. During the Banquet, three community leaders will be recognized for their outstanding efforts to serve others and improve our community.

Funds raised through the Freedom Fund Banquet provide the Branch with access to essential training, resources, and materials that strengthen its advocacy and support initiatives in civic engagement, social action, health and wellness, education, and youth and college programming. These resources help the Branch respond to community needs while promoting opportunity, equity, and inclusion throughout DeSoto County.

Among the Branch's ongoing priorities is civic engagement and voter participation. In preparation for the November 3, 2026 General Election, the Branch continues its voter registration, education, and Get Out the Vote (GOTV) efforts.

The Branch also continues its Adopt-a-School partnership with Horn Lake Middle School, through which members and the Health Committee provide needed school supplies, personal-care items, and other resources to support students and families.

Through advocacy, education, service, and civic engagement, the DeSoto County Branch continues working toward a future in which "We the People" means all people, and every resident has the opportunity to thrive in education, health, housing, justice, civic life, and the environment.
